CINDY HIGHT

Cindy,
I've got a poem for you.

Farewell Now my Friend

I love you my friend, you're quite dear to me, a true friend you are and always will be.
But you're leaving me soon and going on my way, perhaps we will meet in the future some day.
You left me with memories of good times we've had,
to treasure forever and make me feel glad.
I wish you good luck in all that you do,
may all life's pleasures come your way too.
Farewell now my friend, and please may you find, some thoughts of me always in your mind.

I believe in the words of this poem. We've been friends for a long time. I still remember the first day we all met and started being friends. Have a great life, I wish you the best in all that you do.

Love and friendship,
Carol Evans

Twenty years ago
the Highline School District felt a need to expand. So . . .
near Angle Lake in Seattle, Washington, an old gravel pit was transformed into Tyee High School and Valley Ridge Park.
Tyee planted trees, grew some grass;
put in baseball fields, tennis courts and a football field;
and placed big round buildings in the middle.
And they made it what it is today—a beautiful and unique school in South Seattle . . .

Tahlkie

Volume XX

1983

. . . Into these big round buildings they put classrooms and halls and drinking fountains.
They brought in students and teachers;
gave up clubs, a student government and activities for all.
We built sports teams, some championship others just pushing for excellence.
There have been good winners, good workers, good leaders, good sportsmen, good students—enough to make Tyee a well-respected school in all our hearts.

"83"

by Tara Platt

A new year has begun.
We look to some good times,
We expect some bad ones;
We begin to get settled,
To look ahead,
To plan
everything.
We get used to the teachers,
new and old;
We meet new friends and see old ones.

Beginning

Above: Typing are, from left, sophomores Lisa Hopkins, Helen Ah Yo, Anna Sandness, senior Brett Hagar, and sophomore Sylvia Wells. Right: "The square root of 4 is 2 . . ." Sophomore Eric Hipp tries to finish his math assignment after school.

Cindy, you're a real sweet person. I hope we see a lot of each other this summer. Good luck in your future and have a great summer.

Love,
Leanne Ensey

Cindy,
Wasn't Prom
great?! I had so much fun. I hope that your future will be super great.
Take care, and God Bless.
Kay

Developing

As the year progresses,
We begin to feel at home
We find our places in school life
Becoming used to the routine;
We look for answers to what's ahead.

Progressing

As the year's end creeps up,
We look for variety and
new interests;
Some get new classes
and teachers.
We look for answers to meet new challenges.
As the year moves toward its conclusion,
We feel ourselves
growing;
We look for variety and
new interests
With new classes and teachers.

Perfecting

It's finally over,
We have conquered
Some look to a summer
And what the next year will bring;
Some are out of school
And they look to their future.

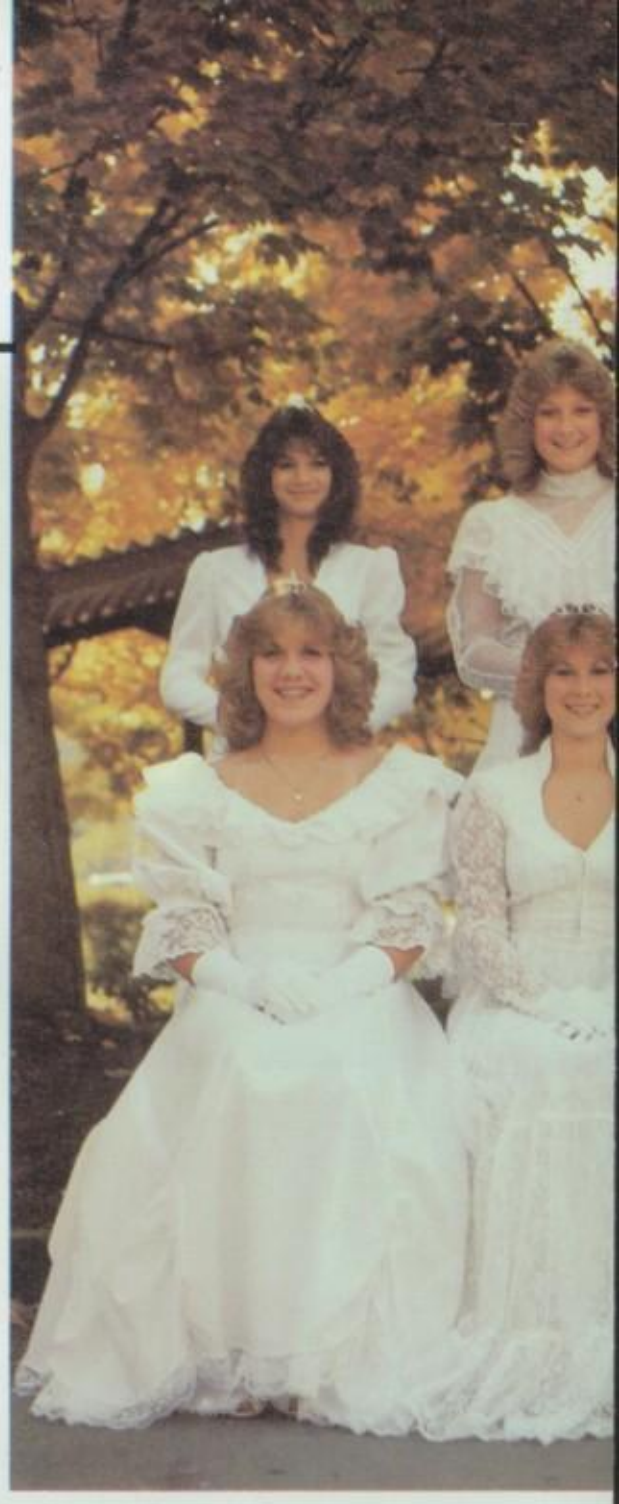
Homecoming has changed honored sport to football

Left: Mike Criss and Shelley Hobbs live it up at the homecoming dance as they relax during a band break. Below: Junior Princess Diana Rillera is escorted down the red-carpeted aisle by Steve Baird to join her court at the opening of the assembly.

Someday I will own one of my own hopefully by the time I am 21 love ya Randy



Queen adds to celebration of good times

Potlatch week began the festivities . . . The assembly was not just another assembly. It brought out the school spirit and pride in our royalty . . . the skit performed by the seniors was one of the traditions enjoyed by Totems. The magic moment, when the music started . . . the crowning of our queen and princesses. To make the night memorable to all, a football victory in the Homecoming game against third-ranked Enumclaw . . . the score, 16-13 . . . during halftime the court was driven around the field in Corvettes . . . the band played "Chariots of Fire", while Jamie Straus introduced the court. The dance was our celebration . . . on Saturday night . . . October 25, time 8-11 . . . the band was Prowler . . . the night was made for music . . . this evening will ever live in our hearts.

Dedicated Frosh experience life in a new atmosphere

September 8, 1982 . . . 7:45 a. m. . . . the Class of '86 . . . the Freshman Class began its journey in Totem life. The frosh had dedication . . . dedication to prove themselves . . . their 279½ hours working at the gift wrap booth, earning $357.16 . . . the top hours and earnings . . . now that's dedication. President Todd Person, vice president Gregg Vukelic, secretary Christy Anderson, treasurer Terri Curulla and adviser Mr. Smith enthusiastically worked to bring their class together . . . a unified class. Now they anticipate the next step . . . their sophomore year.

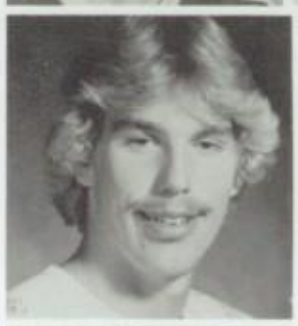
Gridders show talents with impressive victories over Enumclaw, Liberty



The football team ended its season with 2 wins and 7 losses . . . their most memorable game, Homecoming at Memorial Stadium when we hosted third-ranked Enumclaw, was the team's first victory, 16-13 . . . With their positive attitude and believing in what they could do, the team got together during the summer, after Tyee's field was reseeded, to tend it—that's team work! The initiation of the sophomores was the Tyee jumping jacks . . . at the last game the team introduced the senior players' parents . . . at the awards banquet Jeff Stefanick was recognized as most valuable, Mike Starnes was voted most improved, and team captain Grant Allen was most inspirational . . . the most important elements of the team—the coach Warren Levenhagen and his assistants, Steve Doutrich, Larry Stenson, Bruce Rick, and Jerry Hammack.

Tyee netters have magic all their own

The 13 spikers suffered a disappointing season with only three wins, two over Liberty and one over Mount Rainier, and nine losses . . . Their most memorable game was against first-place Tahoma when the Totems showed their ability to win after their comeback late in the game . . . still they lost that game . . . the statistics didn't dampen their spirits at the awards banquet at Bison's Creek . . . Janet Hay was named most inspirational, and Cara Holmes was chosen to be next year's captain.

Below: The team waits for Karin Jones to save the ball at Liberty. Below left: Janet Hay stretches to "bump" the ball for a save as Tami Passmore waits to help her. Bottom: Wendy Smith shows her bumping ability during the game against Enumclaw.

Potlatch creates class unity, school spirit

AST sponsored Potlatch Week, the spirit week filled with fun and crazy class competitions ... Oct. 17-22, before Homecoming ... the unity of each class and of the school was displayed throughout the week as the class teams competed for points ... the banana 7-Up drink, the toilet paper wrap and the balloon shave — these were the activities on stage during both lunches ... at the end of the week the total points were tallied and the mighty seniors won respect and prestige from the juniors, sophomores, and freshman.

Right: After helping to win the class competition for the seniors, Pat Flynn throws off his toilet paper as Karen Spurgeon announces their victory.

Wherever we are we make the effort to enjoy life —

Tyee's 'Holiday' was a holiday for Theatre Tyee audiences

Effort, the 1,800 hours of effort ... Director Mrs. Henderson and the 15 members of the cast and crew put in their time for six weeks of rehearsals ... the time spent on make-up, costumes, set preparation, or just reading the lines made "Holiday for Lovers" a special treat ... those special nights, Nov. 18, 19, and 20 ... Theatre Tyee audiences laughed and were moved by the performance ... the unity — the cast displayed unity before and after each performance ... the hugging was the most touching moment of all ...

Made it through seven deadlines

In room 604, 15 staff members, one mascot, one pet, one adviser (Ms. Rudy) and one editor-in-chief (Kim Wood) put the annual together in seven deadlines. Design coordinator Bridget Walls drew the layouts, photography editor Brenda Lukas and her staff took and printed pictures and page editors did the pages . . . Life as a member of the annual is hard—those long hours during deadlines . . . we screamed, pulled our hair, and cried when something went wrong . . . Eating pizza, Ms. Rudy's famous pumpkin-chocolate chip cookies and anything else that looked good . . . Still we asked, "Is there life after deadlines?"

Their spirit grows as they move up

Class of '85 . . . the sophomores found it better to be a soph than a frosh. They worked hard at the giftwrap booth for 67 hours raising $213.41, sold pens and pencils in the office and Tyee socks and posters . . . the hardworking fundraising sophs. The mighty Bears . . . led by president Donna Person, vice president Mark Lemoine, treasurer Clay Gibson, historian Erin Lacey and senator Dan Larkin, the activities planners. The sophs showed their spirit at pep assemblies and class competitions. Still there is one thing that has the sophomores "psyched up" . . . next year . . . the year they are juniors . . . the next step . . . a step away from the top.

AST officers plan a successful year for Tyee Students

A year of success . . . a year of unique events . . . first time ever, a computer dating match-up . . . dedication of music to people during lunch. Then the usual events . . . the successful giftwrap booth . . . total hours 2316¼; the amount made, $9,193 . . . the most hours were completed by the Freshman Class with 279½ hours. Canned food drives and the competition against Mt. Rainier for Christmas — oh yeah, WE WON! We sponsored the Homecoming and put on Potlatch Week . . . two weeks of fun. Then the typical meetings in room 303 . . . The place where new adviser Mr. Olson and president Scott Seiber met with the officers . . . the once-a-month meeting for room reps the second Tuesday of each month in the cafeteria . . . this was how the year was successful.

Cheerstaff put in time to support our teams to many victories

Totem pow-er! that is what the hardworking cheerstaff cheered about. The extensive training during the summer . . . cheer camp at Central Washington University and the performance at the Des Moines Field House for the Fourth of July parade prepared them for their duties for the school year. Adviser Miss Rankin led them through an exhausting year . . . a year filled with activities . . . fundraising: cheese and crackers, the Christmas Bazaar and raffle tickets. The hardest part of their job is promoting school spirit . . . thinking up new cheers, planning pep assemblies and attending all the games. The most memorable part: the wetness of the rain at the football games . . . the heat in the gym during exciting basektball games. Spring brings a change . . . the tryouts for new cheerleaders, then the "kidnap" breakfast . . . that's the day they remember most.

Cindy,
It's been a long time since Valley View but it hardly seems that long ago. I'm glad we've been friends all this time. Remember the little gang wars back at Valley View? That was great! Oh well just think of the fun ahead!

Take care and have a terrific Summer

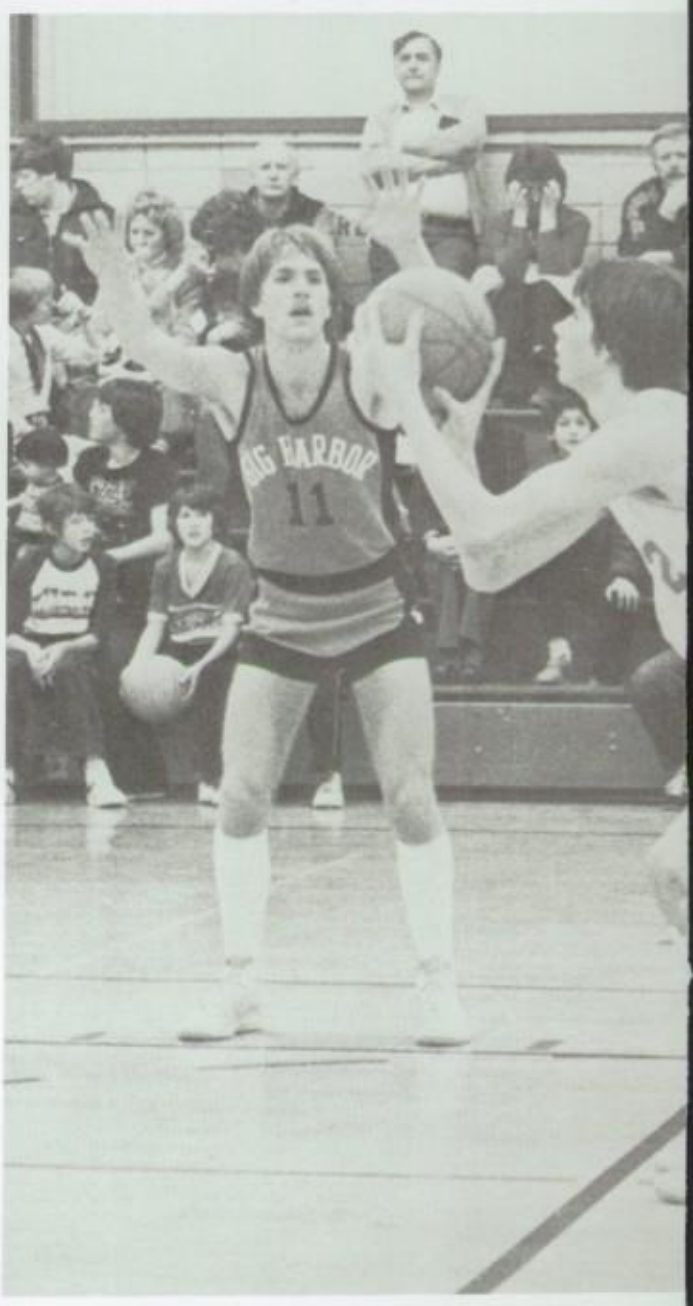
Enthusiastic peppers give time to provide our athletes recognition

"Attention all Peppers: Meeting Thursday after school in Mrs. Davila's room, 801." The calling . . . the one that brought all members including president Tara Stevens to the meeting . . . the discussions of awesome activities . . . the sweatshirt sale in the fall . . . selling pompoms and buttons at games . . . a party for the fall athletes . . . the "Guardian Angels" for the winter sports participants . . . and, of course, the delicious World's Finest Chocolate Bars in the spring. Then came the special award . . . the "pepper award" given the most spirited during the year.

Right: Tyee Pep Club members listen to other members' ideas.

Dribblers cruise past opponents demonstrating their unity



The team that proved its unity at the first game against Mt. Rainer . . . the games they played continued to show unity. The season ended with 10 league wins and 10 loses, but only 2 were league games. Coach Ancheta, captain Steve Redmond and 21 players along with their fathers got to know each other better at Camp Casey . . .the weekend allowed them to understand the hard work that was ahead of them . . . the work they put into the season . . . and the weekend allowed the new members to be initiated . . . an initiation which cannot be told . . . is what brought them together with a season filled with triumphs. The team was honored at the banquet to have the U.W.'s Dan James speak and present the awards . . . the awards given to the deserving players . . . Chris Knipp, most inspirational, was selected to the Seamount League's first team . . . Shawn Haynes most improved player . . . Craig Brooks was named to the Seamount honorable mention team . . . Steve Redmond was voted captain for next year. The year of victories and defeats . . . still a year when the team showed what unity is.

Cindy,
Can you believe it — we actually graduated oops tonight. Thanx for the drink! You probably have heard this so many times but I'm going to write it anyway — I'm really glad we got to be friends you're really fun to be with. Do you remember pajama day in our sophmore year — or the time I accidently pushed Ruth into the puddle? Prom was fun too! You and Carla better not forget to write to me. I'm really going to miss you — thanks for being such a great friend.

Cin,
So were ya bein all my life? This year went so fast, but it's going to great to be out of this place.
I wish we could of
had a couple of class together s'well thats life. Maybe this summer we can get together and party.
I want one of your senior picture or else!! I need another hair cut before graduation, I'll call ya this summer to party or something.

Senior life has enhanced our memories of Tyee

Seniors . . . the class of "82" . . . the class that graduates on June 14. The class had several of its members win scholarships . . . Irene Zatoukal was selected as 1983 Washington Scholar from the 33rd legislative district. Then there were other events that made this school year the most memorable yet . . . ordering caps and gowns . . . choosing which senior announcement package . . . applying to colleges . . . receiving acceptance letters . . . Homecoming . . . the ability to beat the underclassman during Potlatch Week. But most of all they remember their last day at school . . . Class Day . . . the last assembly . . . then graduation night . . . the last time to sing the Alma Mater . . . the night they receive their diplomas . . . their proof of twelve years of hard work . . . the last time they will be together as a class, but they are glad that this was their last year.

Above: Senior Class officers, front: Historian Shelley Hobbs and treasurer Sue Starnes; back: vice president Jamie Straus, president Russell Diehl, secretary Jeff Stefanick and senator John Mah. Top: On servant day, Debbie Burrington, bought by Willy LaBossier, and Brad Thordarson, bought by Patty Nelson, show how sexy they really are. Cindy
This year was a lot great & had a lot of fun in all the things we did and hopefully maybe we can have some more probably ackted pretty dumb but I guess it is because I care about you so much. I still do and I still care about you as much as always did and I will always care about you. You mentioned a lot to me and you do. Boy picture. Hopefully in a while we can work things out & you mean a lot to me. I will keep sure and keep in touch and don't you forget about me and we will have to get out this summer and we will set you at sun dukes Boy I can't wait for that it is going to be great.
Love always

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve,
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do all the things the same . . .

Tyee's D.J.'s, library, office aides keep student body well informed

The office aides . . . the students who helped the secretaries with jobs . . . doing the filing, the typing, the telephone answering and the mail sorting . . . that's what an office aide does. The library aides . . . the hardworking students who organize book shelves, process books and check books out to other students . . . that's what a library aide does. "Good morning, this is Strive for Pride" . . . the daily announcement made by Elissa Pryor and Brian Hanline . . . the announcements made to keep students informed of upcoming events. These people who work in the office, library and Strive for Pride give the school its finishing touches.

Members of Honor Society make the grade with zeal

Honor society . . .a club for the students with high academic standing . . .a grade point average of 3.25. The year proved to be loaded with experience for the members. The club provided them a chance . . .a chance to do things . . .things that are fun . . .the fun things like putting grams together . . .Pumpkin, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentine, Easter, Graduation . . .they had fun learning about the program opportunities and financial aid at the University of Washington . . .a chance to experience. Quill and Scroll is the club for the above average publications students . . .students who are on the journalism or annual staff . . .the students who had the privlege of wearing the paper hats. The honored students . . .the students of high achievment . . .the students of Honor society and Quill and Scroll generate the spirit for academic achievement.

Right: Lisa Lucas separates the grams by home room so they can be delivered the next morning. Below: Scott Wallace, Brain Person, Drew Satterlee and Devin Hermanson watch Kathy Szyperski light one of the seven candles from the candle of Truth during the initiation ceremony.

The Gravel Pit has become a fine school, full of pride, Triumphal, Respected.
The round buildings will continue to stand, continue to provide an education, a start for a productive future.
We will remember this year,
We will remember our school,
We will return many times to Our High School.

Above: Seniors Rick Jones and Roger Kim sit back to enjoy senior life as they toast the completion of their accounting assignment. Top center: "Hah Hah!" Sophomores Mat Hogg and Lisa Torbergson tell each other jokes to pass the time in Mr. Jacobson's class. Above center: "The Lone Ranger rides again," says senior Pam Cramer, as she hides behind her mask. Right: During a pep assembly junior Lisa Anderson and fellow band members participate in the cheer "Lean, lean, lean, lean". Far right: "Your coming with me, sonny." Seniors Steve McKinney and Scott Anderson, alias Charley Chaplin and the Invisible Man, entertain their history class.

As we look back on this anniversary year, we notice all the sports teams that brought us thrilling victories, the clubs which held bake sales so we could have a little treat after school, the holiday food drives which helped the neady families, and certainly this year's lack of snow.
We welcome the summer
with hopes of good weather and good times, and look forward to the next year
-it will be a time to say goodbye to some friends, To Mr. Zevenbergen who will leave us after 8 years as principal and farewell to the Class of 1983.

Hail to thee, O Red and Gold,
Our high school banner we'll uphold;
With loyalty to thee we sing,
Of victories our halls will ring.
In years to come like days gone by,
We'll always be true to thee, Tyee High,
Tho' we'll soon depart,
Thy mem'ries will ever live In Our Hearts

Cindy!
I'm glad I had you in two classes. The year went slow at first but now its going fast.
Good Luck to you in the future. keep in touch and stay out of trouble.

Cindy,
I'm glad we had Career explorations together (eventhough it was a farout class)
May you have the greatest success in the future!
Have a great Summer

Cindy,
Good times
aren't over yet watch out world here comes lots of fun and adventures ahead of us Lets make the best of them so when the times — to come can be remembered as Take good care yourself, chances are
I won't be seeing you soon, Im
Good Luck

Cindy.
We finelly made it. ♡ I'm going to miss you so bad! It's hard to believe its almost over. Remeber that day we all went out to lunch
That was excellent. Turk, D.P., chef. Ha! Ha!
I wish you the best of luck in the future. Take care of yourself.
Good luck ♡ "83"
